PART I

Item 1. Business

Apple Inc. designs, manufactures, and markets smartphones, personal computers, tablets, wearables, and accessories, and sells a variety of related services. The Company's fiscal year is the 52- or 53-week period that ends on the last Saturday of September.

Product categories include iPhone, Mac, iPad, and Wearables, Home and Accessories. Services includes Advertising, AppleCare, Cloud Services, Digital Content and Payment Services.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Our business, results of operations, and financial condition are subject to various risks:

- Global Supply Chain & Component Sourcing: The Company relies on single-source or limited-source suppliers for multiple critical components, and disruptions may impact device availability.
- Intense Market Competition: Technological changes in mobile devices, services, and artificial intelligence present ongoing competitive dynamics.
- Foreign Exchange Rate Fluctuations: With significant international sales, currency volatility against the U.S. Dollar creates margin variances.

PART II

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Executive Overview

During fiscal year 2024, total net sales reached $391,035 million, representing a 2.0% increase compared to $383,285 million in fiscal year 2023. Gross margin increased to $180,683 million (46.2% of net sales) driven by Services revenue growth and favorable product mix.

Operating income expanded to $123,263 million, up 7.8% from $114,301 million in fiscal 2023. Net income was $93,295 million compared to $96,178 million in the prior year, reflecting higher tax provisions.
